

NURTURING INTREPID CITIZENS

The Pioneer Health Centre and the politics of welfare in early 20th century London

Justin De Syllas ¹

Draft 21.11.2018

¹ Copyright. The right of Justin De Syllas to be identified as author of this work is asserted.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincerest thanks to Adrian Forty and David Goodway who both provided me with patient support in the early stages of this project. They helped me - a complete novice as a historian - to get started with many useful comments and suggestions. While they did much to improve my work, any mistakes remain my own.

Thank you to all the writers, commentators and historians that authored the primary and secondary sources on which I have relied. Many of these are acknowledged in the footnotes to the text.

My thanks also to the following personal contacts that have provided information, read and commented on sections of the manuscript or given help and encouragement in different ways:

Erika Adler
Viki Berger
Alan and Alison Berman
Mark Bicknell
Jos Boys
Inigo Campbell Langer
Eileen Conn

Lisa Curtice
Jack Czauderna
Penny Gardiner
Tom de Gay
Leonie Kelleher
Jonathan, Sarah and Jennifer Montagu
Simon and Kate Pepper
Hugh Pryor
Anna Versteeg
John Watson
Lorne Williamson
James Witchells

Thanks also to the following institutions:
The British Medical Association Archive
The National Archive
The Pioneer Health Foundation
The RIBA Drawings Collection at the V&A Museum
Wikipedia and most especially
The Wellcome Collection Library, which houses the Pioneer Health Centre Archive

Finally a heartfelt thank you to my wife, Annette Main, who has made this project possible.